MARSH & MCLENNAN AGENCY AWARDS ALEX SUBACZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
LAUREN SPROUSE IS RECIPIENT

Greenville, SC – 15 August 2018 – Marsh & McLennan Agency (MMA) Mid-Atlantic is pleased to announce Lauren Sprouse as the recipient of the 2018 Alex Subacz Memorial Scholarship. Lauren is a 2018 graduate of James F. Byrnes High School in Duncan, SC. She is a member of the National Art Honors Society, the National French Honors Society, and played lacrosse for three years while in high school. In the fall, Lauren will be attending Spartanburg Community College where she will pursue an Associate's of the Arts degree before transferring to University of South Carolina to pursue a Bachelor's degree in communications.

Lauren is actively involved with various mission groups. In 2016, she spent a week in Haiti with her local church youth group as well as three weeks in Peru in 2017 with the mission organization Adventures in Missions. She currently serves as the ministry director for Impact Drayton, a church plant in Spartanburg, SC. She has also interned with Impact Community Church.

"I am so proud of Lauren's commitment to community service and foreign mission services," says Carmon Burgess, Lauren's mother. "She is dedicated to continuing to serve others in need through mission initiatives and college education. The Alex Subacz Memorial Scholarship will be instrumental to helping her achieve her dreams."

The Alex Subacz Memorial Scholarship has been in place for over 15 years. It is awarded annually to the child or dependent of an MMA employee who is pursuing a two or four year degree at an accredited institution. The recipient of the Alex Subacz Memorial Scholarship is selected by an independent committee of MMA business partners who evaluate the candidates in the areas of academic performance, employment experience, extracurricular and leadership activities, as well as financial need. The scholarship is named in memory of Alex Subacz, son of Marie Subacz, who is a senior vice president and client executive based in Alexandria. She has been a part of the MMA Mid-Atlantic organization for over 38 years.
